SUBJECT: BARLIMORE, Mario - attendance at a meeting of the International Students Union in Moscow.

REFERENCE: U.S. Army

Chief source 10/5589 obtained the following information in mid May 1950 from a paid informant who is a member of the Italian Communist Party. Evaluation: Source "B" (usually reliable); Subsource "C" (fairly reliable); Information "J" (possibly true).
Chairman of International Students Union
AUSSR, Moscow
Union, under the chairmanship of Russian citizen (fairly reliable) met in Moscow, from 15 to 28 April 1950, to coordinate plans for carrying out a large-scale youth propaganda campaign.

The committee gave special consideration to the youth problems in the countries of Eastern Europe, and outlined, as the principal objectives of its 1950 youth campaign, the instilling of Communist ideology among youths - especially students - in order to build up the membership of the various Communist Parties.

The most important decision of the Moscow conference was to increase the circulation of all party publications and especially those dealing with Communist ideology. It was resolved that Communist "classics" will be printed and distributed gratuitously or at greatly reduced prices in all the countries of Eastern Europe. It was also decided that all possible encouragement must be given to youth recreational facilities by sponsoring and financing clubs for sports and athletics.

For youth propaganda in the schools and universities, it was resolved that subtle propaganda is to be carried out by trained Party members to denounce the following:

- a. the high cost of education
- b. the lack of financial or other assistance for young students
- c. the danger of imminent war
- d. the consequences of war on youths desiring to obtain an education -

#01, 26 July 1950, Bad Ischl Field Office, subject: ITALY - ERMILIO R. MARICE - Attaché at a meeting of the International Students Union in Moscow.

- e. The problem of finding employment
- f. The laxity with which courses are being conducted
- g. The preponderance of theoretical, rather than practical courses which are offered for study.

The Italian Communist Party sent Enrico B. P. Ingrao, executive secretary of the Italian Communist Youth Federation to participate at this meeting. On 24 April 1950, Ingrao spoke before the International Student Union's Executive Committee in New York, according to a transcript, elaborated on the following:

- a. Reactionary Italian groups have enslaved Italy to the Atlantic Pact
- b. These groups are actively supported by Catholic organizations which are conducting an intensive propaganda in favor of a new war
- c. Any million Italian workers do not act war and they do not support the government. Italian students are protesting against war preparations and the Italian students' movement for peace is growing every day.

Files of this Sub-Attachment contain numerous references to Carlos GARCERAN who is a leading personality in the FRY hierarchy.
